

The grand jury of Carroll County (Md.) Circuit Court have presented several parties for treason against the State.

A civilian is being tried before a military commission at headquarters of the Army of the Potomac upon charges of signaling and otherwise communicating information to the Confederates.

The various officers stationed in and about Baltimore gave a ball at the New Assembly Rooms on Wednesday night, in response to courtesies extended to them during the winter by the managers of the Union Assemblies.—The American states that the affair passed off very satisfactorily, and the attendance fully demonstrated the thorough loyalty of this city. It says further: "It was truly an assemblage of the beauty and intelligence and wealth of the guests present were a combination of families who could buy and sell every Rebel in Baltimore." The lady patronesses were Mrs. Aug. W. Bradford, Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, Mrs. Henry Winter Davis, Mrs. Reverdy Johnson, Mrs. Alexander Turnbull, Mrs. John S. Berry.

A letter from Winchester, in the Philadelphia Inquirer says:—"General Milroy's interdiction against all kinds of intoxicating liquors frees this town from all kinds of misbehaviour. Ladies walk the streets with as little apprehension of ill-treatment as they would in Philadelphia. The hospitals have but few patients. The camps are cleanly and orderly. The contraband negroes mend the roads and cleanse the streets. Transportation has changed its route. The trains with forage and provisions start direct from Harper's Ferry, over an excellent turnpike. The one from Martinsburg is being repaired. Last Saturday week a general review was made of all the troops, about a mile outside of the town."

Mayor Opdyke has approved the Broadway Railroad bill, and two thousand men have been set to work on the road.

The amendment of the Constitution of Massachusetts repealing the two years' qualification of voters of foreign birth has been adopted by nearly four thousand majority in a total vote of about 16,000.

Seven persons engaged in the riot in Danville, Indiana, have been arrested and held to bail. They have made a confession, and exposed the organization of the Knights of the Golden Circle.

The Nashville Union Club, of five hundred members, have adopted anti-slavery resolutions.

The extensive sales of condemned horses and mules in Washington, commenced yesterday. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, the attendance was large, and the bidding quite spirited. One hundred and eighty were sold, and the sale will continue from day to day until the whole number (about one thousand) are disposed of. The buyers are principally from Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New York.

Gen. Banks has issued another order prohibiting depredations upon private property, in Louisiana, for the benefit of officers in the army. The case of a Dr. Kelley of Vermont, who has been appropriating furniture books &c., to his own use, is brought prominently forward.

The streams in this neighborhood and in the upper country, have been very much swollen by the late rains and it was reported this morning that the bridge over Bull Run had been washed away.

PROCLAMATION.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
ALEXANDRIA, April 22, 1863. }
The President of the United States, at the request of the Senate, having designated Thursday, the 30th of April, as a day of National humiliation, fasting and prayer, that the people of the United States on that day may abstain from their ordinary secular pursuits, and to unite at their several places of worship and homes in keeping the day holy to the Lord, and to beseech the forgiveness of their sins and short comings, and particularly to pray that he may look with compassion upon us, and forgive our national and individual sins, and lead us to repentance, that our imperiled Nationality may be preserved on a broad foundation of peace, concord and fraternity:—
In accordance, therefore, with this request of the Chief Magistrate of the United States, I have to request that our citizens on that day abstain from their ordinary pursuits, and that all places of public amusement be closed.
Given under my hand this 22d day of April, 1863. C. A. WARE, Mayor.

POSTSCRIPT.

FROM THE WEST.

MURFREESBORO', April 24.—Refugees relieved from McMinnville, by a highly successful expedition by Gen. Reynolds, have arrived at Readyville. Gen. Hazen telegraphs that Gen. Reynolds took the town, capturing two railroad trains and a train of wagons. Among the number of prisoners taken was Mrs. John Morgan. The expedition has more important results, as affecting the situation, than those named.

The Chattanooga Rebel, of the 19th instant, says: Despatches from Jackson, of the 17th, have been received, saying, in substance, that an early attack is to be made on Vicksburg from opposite and below the city, and for that purpose the Federals had passed eight boats on the night previous.

Later dispatches intimate that the Confederates expect Grant to make demonstrations south from Corinth at the same time.

THE STEAMER ALABAMA.

Boston, April 22.—A recent arrival states:—It is reported in Cape Haytien, that the Alabama chased two vessels ashore in Turks Island passage on the 26th of March, and that one of them had gone to pieces. The cargo of the other will be saved.

From St. Louis.

St. Louis, April 24.—Gov. Gamble has called four regiments of the State Militia into active service for thirty days in consequence of extensive kidnapping in the vicinity.

Gen. Curtis has issued an order that no negroes be permitted to be taken from the city without a special permit granted by Provost Marshals.

Injunction.

New York, April 24.—An injunction was laid on the Broadway Railroad last evening and the work on it was suspended.

FROM THE SOUTH.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—The Richmond Whig of the 21st inst. states that a squad of Federal cavalry, estimated fifteen hundred strong, are advancing on Pontotoc, Miss.—Their advance guard was reported there that night, and as the Confederates are concentrating to resist them, an engagement was imminent.

The Charleston Courier of the 18th inst. describes the attack by the Union gunboat Flambeau upon the wreck of the Keokuk. While parties of Confederates from Morris Island were endeavoring to dismantle her, they were driven away by the fire of the gunboat.

The Wilmington N. C. Journal of the 18th inst admits that Gen. Hill has abandoned the siege of Washington, and states that the expedition has turned out a complete failure.
